

Guarantee (To be executed by Guarantor for participants aged 15 - 17

I have read and understood the agreements entered into between _____ Student's name
and Summer Company grant program and in consideration of the successful application for the Summer Company grant.

If the student defaults on any obligation under program you will fulfill the obligations of the student and stand in place for all purposes under this agreement. By signing this contract, you further understand that the student must complete the following items to receive any grant disbursement and must adhere to the program requirements as stated in program's guidelines. Please note that if the Program Coordinator sees that the guidelines are not observed or in the case of the misuse of funds, the grant can instantly convert into a repayable loan.

I have been given the opportunity to speak with the Summer Company Coordinator to answer any questions I have about the program.

By signing this form, it indicates that you are (the guarantor) an adult of 18 years or more.
